Made in the Triad 2025
Planes Trains & Automobiles

i2E Group attended the Made in the Triad 2025 event on Nov. 5. Hosted by Triad Business Journal, this year's program highlighted three distinguished leaders of manufacturing across planes, trains, and automobiles in the Triad area:

- Amod Kelkar,
  - Chief Commercial Officer & Senior Vice President at Honda Aircraft Company
- Cory Phillips
  - Head of Manufacturing at Siemens Mobility.
- and Richard Ngosi,
  - Vice President of Manufacturing at Toyota Battery Manufacturing North Carolina (TBMNC)

Our CEO & Founder, John Weir, had the wonderful opportunity to speak with each panelist and reconnect with one of our valued customers, who also was featured as a panelist during the event!

It was an inspiring evening, celebrating innovation, collaboration, and the continued growth of manufacturing in the Triad region. Between Honda Aircraft's projected 50% increase in employees over the next two years, Toyota Battery Manufacturing North Carolina's 4,000 committed and hired team members, and Siemens Mobility's ambitious goal of producing 12 high-quality railcars each month, i2E Group is excited and looking forward to the growth ahead, along with the opportunities for collaboration and expanding employment prospects for those in the Triad community.
